Order of Worship

Welcome and greetings

Keith Michaels, ruling elder

* Call to worship

based on Psalm 19 and Psalm 47

Leader: The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands.

All: Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they display knowledge. There is no speech or language where their voice is not heard. Their voice goes out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world.

Leader: Clap your hands, all you nations; shout to God with cries of joy. How awesome is the LORD Most High, the great King over all the earth!

All: God is the King of all the earth; sing to him a psalm of praise!

* Hymn of praise

“O Worship the King”

O worship the King all-glorious above,
O gratefully sing his pow’r and his love;
our shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days, pavilioned in splendor and girded with praise.

O tell of his might, O sing of his grace, whose robe is the light, whose canopy space.
His chariots of wrath the deep thunderclouds form,
and dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
in you do we trust, nor find you to fail;
your mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend!

based on Psalm 104, text by Robert Grant, 1833; music by Johann Michael Haydn, 1737-1806

* Prayer of adoration

Missions report

Call to confession

based on Isaiah 30 and Daniel 9

Leader: This is what the Sovereign LORD, the Holy One of Israel says: "In repentance and rest is your salvation, in quietness and trust is your strength, but you would have none of it." Yet the LORD longs to be gracious to you; he rises to show you compassion. For the LORD is a God of justice. Blessed are all who wait for him! How gracious he will be when you cry for help!

All: Now, our God, hear our prayers. We do not make requests of you because we are righteous, but because of your great mercy. O Lord, listen! O Lord, forgive!

Silent prayers of confession

Assurance of God's pardoning grace

based on 1 Peter 2 and Galatians 2 and 6

Leader: Jesus Christ himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds we have been healed. For we were like sheep going astray, but now we have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of our souls.

All: We have been crucified with Christ and we no longer live, but Christ lives in us. The life that we live in the body, we live by faith in the Son of God, who loved us and gave himself for us. May we never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

* Hymn of assurance

"Here Is Love"

Here is love vast as the ocean, loving-kindness as a flood, when the Prince of life, our ransom, shed for us his precious blood.
Here is love, Lord we remember; from our hearts we lift your praise, raising high the living anthem all will sing through endless days.

On the mount of crucifixion fountains opened deep and wide.
Through the floodgates of your mercy flowed a vast and gracious tide.
Here is love like mighty rivers poured unceasing from above:
heaven's peace and perfect justice kissed a guilty world in love.

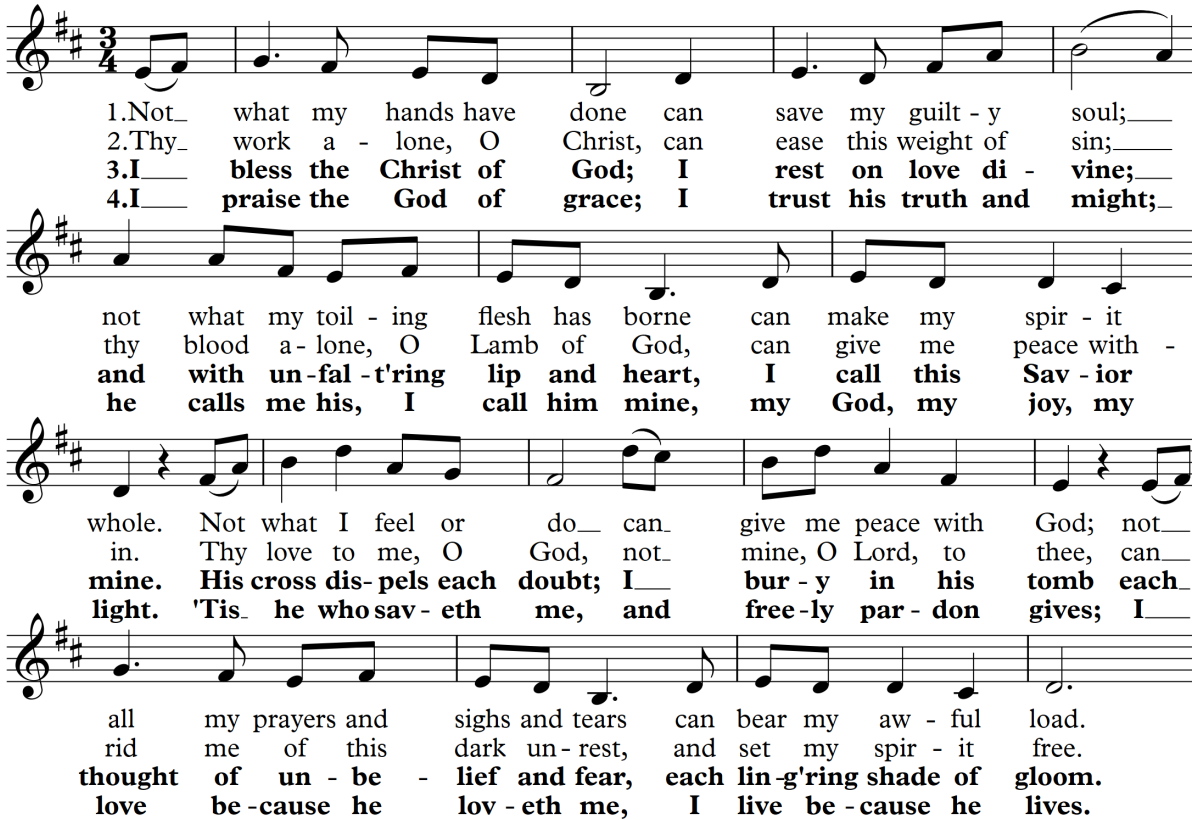

Let me all thy love accepting, love thee, ever all my days;
let me seek thy kingdom only, and my life be to thy praise.
Thou alone shalt be my glory, nothing in the world I see.
Thou hast cleansed and sanctified me; thou thyself hast set me free.
Here is love, Lord we remember; from our hearts we lift your praise, raising high the living anthem all will sing through endless days.

text by William Rees, 1802-1883; music by Robert Lowry, 1876

Worship in the giving of God's tithe and our offerings

Offertory hymn

"Not What My Hands Have Done"

1. Not what my hands have done can save my guilt - y soul;—
2. Thy work a - lone, O Christ, can ease this weight of sin;—
3. I bless the Christ of God; I rest on love di - vine;—
4. I praise the God of grace; I trust his truth and might;—

not what my toil - ing flesh has borne can make my spir - it thy blood a - lone, O Lamb of God, can give me peace with - and with un - fal - t'ring lip and heart, I call this Sav - ior he calls me his, I call him mine, my God, my joy, my whole. Not what I feel or do can give me peace with God; not in. Thy love to me, O God, not mine, O Lord, to thee, can mine. His cross dis - pels each doubt; I bur - y in his tomb each light. 'Tis he who sav - eth me, and free - ly par - don gives; I all my prayers and sighs and tears can bear my aw - ful load.

rid me of this dark un - rest, and set my spir - it free.
thought of un - be - lief and fear, each lin - g'ring shade of gloom.
love be - cause he lov - eth me, I live be - cause he lives.

Pastoral prayer

* Hymn of response

“I Will Glory in My Redeemer”

I will glory in my Redeemer, whose priceless blood has ransomed me.
Mine was the sin that drove the bitter nails, and hung him on that judgment tree.
I will glory in my Redeemer, who crushed the power of sin and death.
My only Savior before the holy Judge: the Lamb who is my righteousness;
the Lamb who is my righteousness.

I will glory in my Redeemer, my life he bought, my love he owns.
I have no longings for another, I'm satisfied in him alone.
I will glory in my Redeemer; his faithfulness my standing place.
Though foes are mighty and rush upon me, my feet are firm, held by his grace;
my feet are firm, held by his grace.

I will glory in my Redeemer, who carries me on eagles' wings.
He crowns my life with loving kindness; his triumph song I'll ever sing.
I will glory in my Redeemer, who waits for me at gates of gold, and when he calls me it will be paradise, his face forever to behold;
his face forever to behold.

Philippians 3:1-11

¹Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord! It is no trouble for me to write the same things to you again, and it is a safeguard for you. ²Watch out for those dogs, those men who do evil, those mutilators of the flesh. ³For it is we who are the circumcision, we who worship by the Spirit of God, who glory in Christ Jesus, and who put no confidence in the flesh—⁴though I myself have reasons for such confidence. If anyone else thinks he has reasons to put confidence in the flesh, I have more: ⁵circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the law, a Pharisee; ⁶as for zeal, persecuting the church; as for legalistic righteousness, faultless.

⁷But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. ⁸What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ ⁹and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness that comes from God and is by faith. ¹⁰I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of sharing in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, ¹¹and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead.

The rosebud in the sanctuary today is for the birth of Warren Reid Speck, born to Hannah and Daniel Speck on July 2.

WELCOMING LMPC-SUPPORTED MISSIONARIES, RUTH ANN AND NORM LEDUC

The Leducs are giving a report in our fellowship hall services this morning. Ruth Ann (Heddendorf) was first sent out by LMPC over 30 years ago. She met Norm in France, and since their marriage they have served in various missions roles in France, England, Canada and, for the past nine years, at the Pioneers U.S. headquarters in Orlando.

The Leducs will soon “relaunch” overseas to Montpellier, France, where Norm will help lead a strategic media ministry focused on church planting in a major unreached area of the world. Ruth Ann will serve in member care, helping the 250+ Pioneers missionaries across Europe thrive in their lives and ministries.
