

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

January 5, 2020 | Sanctuary Service | 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

WELCOME TO LMPC! We're so glad you are with us today. Please use the welcome card from the pew rack in front of you to share important information with us. As we come together to worship the living God, we ask that you silence all communication devices and refrain from bringing beverages into worship so that we might, in joyful reverence, give our full attention to praising and honoring our God.

CHILDCARE: Children of any age are welcome in our worship services. If you desire to use our nursery for your children ages 0-3, please see one of our ushers for directions. The ushers can also point you to the crayons and activity sheets relevant to today's sermon that are provided for children each week.

Order of Worship

Prelude

"Great Is Thy Faithfulness"
John Innes

Welcome and greetings

Joe Novenson, pastor of senior adults

 Call to worship

based on Psalm 145

Leader: We will exalt you, our God the King; we will praise your name for ever and ever.

All: Every day we will praise you and extol your name for ever and ever. Great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; his greatness no one can fathom.

Leader: The LORD is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and rich in love. The LORD is good to all; he has compassion on all he has made.

All: All you have made will praise you, O LORD; your saints will extol you. They will tell of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might, so that all may know of your mighty acts and the glorious splendor of your kingdom. Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures through all generations.

 Hymn of praise 115, vv. 1, 2, 5

"All Creatures of Our God and King"

* Prayer of adoration and the Lord's prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Offertory

"Jesus Paid It All"

Chancel Choir

I hear the Savior say, "Thy strength indeed is small!
Child of weakness, watch and pray, find in me thine all in all."
Jesus paid it all, all to him I owe; sin had left a crimson stain, he washed it white as snow.

For nothing good have I whereby thy grace to claim.
I'll wash my garments white in the blood of Calv'ry's Lamb.
Jesus paid it all, all to him I owe; sin had left a crimson stain, he washed it white as snow.

And when before the throne I stand in him complete,
"Jesus died my soul to save," my lips shall still repeat.
Jesus paid it all, all to him I owe; sin had left a crimson stain, he washed it white as snow.

text by Elvina M. Hall, 1865; music by John T. Grape, 1868 arr by Robert Sterling

* Gloria Patri 735

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen, amen.

* Prayer of dedication and thanksgiving

* Scripture reading from Luke 11:1-2b, 10:21

Pastoral prayer

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper

Lookout Mountain Presbyterian Church welcomes all baptized Christians who have previously been admitted to the Lord's Table, by the elders of this or any Gospel-proclaiming church, to receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Come with joy as you actively trust in Christ and willingly forsake sin, having sought reconciliation in all relationships.

Invitation to the Lord's Table

Call to confession

taken from Hebrews 4:16

Let us approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

Hymn of confession 500, vv. 1-3

"Rock of Ages, Cleft for Me"

Silent prayers of confession

Assurance of God's pardoning grace

based on 1 Peter 2

We are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that we may declare the praises of him who called us out of darkness into his wonderful light. Once we were not a people, but now we are the people of God; once we had not received mercy, but now we have received mercy. Christ Jesus himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds we have been healed.

Words of institution

Communion affirmation

Leader: God of all good, you have prepared for us a feast; and because we are unworthy in ourselves to sit down as guests, we wholly rest on the merits of Jesus and hide ourselves in his righteousness.

All: In this supper we remember the agony of the cross and the cost of redemption. We rejoice in your eternal love, boundless grace, and infinite compassion.

Leader: We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection, until you come again.

All: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Musicians for this week:

Joy Gibbons – director

Joshua Knight – organ, piano

Luke 11:1-2b

¹One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples." ²He said to them, "When you pray, say: 'Father, hallowed be your name.'"

Luke 10:21

²¹At that time Jesus, full of joy through the Holy Spirit, said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this was your good pleasure."

SERMON NOTES

“The Necessity of Joyous Praise”

Luke 11:1-2b, 10:21

NEW SERMON SERIES

THE NECESSITY OF PRAYER: LESSONS FROM LUKE

A year ago, our congregation spent the month of January renewing our commitment to the authority and necessity of God's Word. At the beginning of this year, we are turning to the other (and no less important) necessity in the life of the believer and the life of the church: prayer. There is no mistaking the centrality of prayer in the life of Jesus, particularly as recorded in the Gospel of Luke. Jesus prayed at his baptism, before his crucifixion, and as he was dying. Throughout his ministry, he withdrew time and again from the crowds to pray, and he taught his disciples how to pray. If our perfect Master was so devoted to prayer, should not we be likewise? May this sermon series spur all of us to commit ourselves afresh to Kingdom-focused prayer that is rooted and grounded in the Word of God.

AS A COMPLEMENT TO THE SERMON SERIES on "The Necessity of Prayer," a prayer resources handout is available in the narthex and the fellowship hall lobby. This handout provides a list of additional resources on prayer available in the church library and at lmpc.org. It also lists the various opportunities for participating in communal prayer here at LMPC.

WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS

WE ARE AGAIN OFFERING COMMUNITY BIBLE READING JOURNALS for sale as we begin the new year. The journals are for sale in the fellowship hall lobby and the sanctuary narthex. They cost $10 each and last for two years. There will also be a CBR Journal discussion Sunday School class led by Hunt Davidson beginning today at 9:30 a.m. in the Small Conference Room.
