PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

October 4, 2020 | Sanctuary Service | 9:00 and 11:00 a.m.

WELCOME TO LMPC! We're so glad you are with us today. Please use the welcome card from the pew rack to share important information with us. As we come together to worship the living God, we ask that you silence all communication devices and refrain from bringing beverages into worship so that we might, in joyful reverence, give our full attention to praising and honoring our God.

- Coloring sheets and crayons are available for children. Please take crayons home with you.
- Tithes and offerings may be left in the plates at the exits.
- At the end of the service, please wait for the ushers to indicate when and where you are to exit.

Order of Worship

Prelude

"What a Friend We Have in Jesus"
arr. Robert Hobby

Welcome and announcements

Don Kent, ruling elder

* Call to worship

based on Isaiah 40 and Psalm 95

Leader: Do you not know? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom.

All: He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall.

Leader: But those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and never faint.

All: Come, let us sing for joy to the LORD; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation. Let us extol him with music and song.

Hymn of praise

“Have You Not Known?”

Men’s Ensemble and congregation

Ensemble: Have you not known? Have you not heard?
Has it not been told you that the everlasting God dwells on high in starry splendor?
His glory is unspeakable; his power shall never fail.
They that wait on the Lord shall renew their strength.
They shall mount up as eagles; they shall run and not grow weary;
they shall walk and never faint.

To whom will God, the LORD, compare?
Who can stand his equal? By his word he formed the heavens,
by his power he e’er sustains them.
Vain rulers perish hopelessly; strong nations come to naught.
But they that wait on the Lord shall renew their strength.
They shall mount up as eagles; they shall run and not grow weary;
they shall walk and never faint.

Then why complain, O Israel?
Why downcast, O Jacob? Do you think he does not see?
Is your way now disregarded?
His knowledge is unsearchable, his wisdom strong and sure.
They that wait on the Lord shall renew their strength.
They shall mount up as eagles; they shall run and not grow weary;
they shall walk and never faint.

All: Have you not known? Have you not heard?
Has it not been told you that the everlasting God
neither tires nor grows weary?
E’en youths shall stumble helplessly, the young grow weak and faint.
But they that wait on the Lord shall renew their strength.
They shall mount up as eagles; they shall run and not grow weary;
they shall walk and never faint.

Affirmation of faith

The Heidelberg Catechism, questions 27 and 28

Leader: What do you understand by the providence of God?

All: God's providence is his almighty and ever present power, whereby, as with his hand, he upholds heaven and earth and all creatures, and so governs them that leaf and blade, rain and drought, fruitful and barren years, food and drink, health and sickness, riches and poverty, indeed, all things, come not by chance but by his fatherly hand.

Leader: What does it benefit us to know that God has created all things and upholds them by his providence?

All: We can be patient in adversity, thankful in prosperity, and with a view to the future we can have a firm confidence in our faithful God and Father that nothing will separate us from his love; for all creatures are so completely in his hand that without his will they cannot so much as move.

Call to confession

taken from Hebrews 4:14-16

Leader: Since we have a great high priest who has gone through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet was without sin.

All: Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

Silent prayers of confession

Choral meditation

“I’d Rather Have Jesus”

Men’s Ensemble

Give me Jesus, give me Jesus.
You can have all this world. Give me Jesus.

I’d rather have Jesus than silver or gold.
I’d rather be his than have riches untold.
I’d rather have Jesus than houses or lands.
I’d rather be led by his nail-pierced hand,
than to be the king of a vast domain, or be held in sin’s dread sway.
I’d rather have Jesus than anything this world affords today.

He's fairer than lilies of rarest bloom.
He's sweeter than honey from out of the comb.
He's all that my hungering spirit needs.
I'd rather have Jesus and let him lead,
than to be the king of a vast domain, or be held in sin's dread sway.
I'd rather have Jesus than anything this world affords today.

Give me Jesus, give me Jesus.
You can have all this world. Give me Jesus.

Assurance of God's pardoning grace

Isaiah 53:4-6

Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God, smitten by him, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed. We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

All: Make your presence known to staff and faculty as they navigate teaching and serving the student body through new platforms that provide challenges as well as opportunities. Grant them wisdom, patience, strength, and dependence on you in every area of their lives and work.

Leader: Make your presence known to students as they pursue all that you have called them to at this time in their lives. As they grow in relationship with you, give them assurance of your grace and favor. As they learn about each other, give them your humility and love. As they study various disciplines, give them diligence, joy, and a sense of wonder.

All: Make your presence known to those in leadership positions as they seek your will for Covenant College. Grant them clarity and wisdom as they make difficult decisions, and encourage their hearts by your Spirit. We pray these things so that all involved in Covenant's work may please the Lord in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in knowledge of God, being strengthened with all power according to his glorious might so that they may have great endurance and patience, and joyfully give thanks to the Father.

Acts 20:1-12

<sup>1</sup>When the uproar had ended, Paul sent for the disciples and, after encouraging them, said good-by and set out for Macedonia. <sup>2</sup>He traveled through that area, speaking many words of encouragement to the people, and finally arrived in Greece, <sup>3</sup>where he stayed three months.

Because the Jews made a plot against him just as he was about to sail for Syria, he decided to go back through Macedonia. <sup>4</sup>He was accompanied by Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea, Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius from Derbe, Timothy also, and Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia. <sup>5</sup>These men went on ahead and waited for us at Troas. <sup>6</sup>But we sailed from Philippi after the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and five days later joined the others at Troas, where we stayed seven days.

<sup>7</sup>On the first day of the week we came together to break bread. Paul spoke to the people and, because he intended to leave the next day, kept on talking until midnight. <sup>8</sup>There were many lamps in the upstairs room where we were meeting. <sup>9</sup>Seated in a window was a young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep as Paul talked on and on. When he was sound asleep, he fell to the ground from the third story and was picked up dead. <sup>10</sup>Paul went down, threw himself on the young man and put his arms around him. "Don't be alarmed," he said. "He's alive!" <sup>11</sup>Then he went upstairs again and broke bread and ate. After talking until daylight, he left. <sup>12</sup>The people took the young man home alive and were greatly comforted.
