

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

October 18, 2020 | Fellowship Hall Service | 9:00 a.m., 11:00 a.m., and 5:00 p.m.

WELCOME TO LMPC! We're so glad you are with us today. Please use the tear-off card in the back of your bulletin to share important information with us. As we come together to worship the living God, we ask that you silence all communication devices and refrain from bringing beverages into worship so that we might, in joyful reverence, give our full attention to praising and honoring our God.

A FEW IMPORTANT THINGS TO NOTE:

- We are unable to offer a nursery at the morning services. We do have a limited capacity nursery at the 5:00 p.m. fellowship hall service for which prior registration is required.
- Coloring sheets and crayons are available for children. Please take crayons home with you.
- Tithes and offerings may be left in the plates at the exits.
- At the end of the service, please wait for the ushers to indicate when and where you are to exit.

Welcome and announcements

Joseph Wingfield, ruling elder

 Call to worship

taken from Psalm 62 and Psalm 63

Leader: My soul finds rest in God alone; my salvation comes from him.

All: He alone is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress, I will never be shaken.

Leader: Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your hearts to him, for God is our refuge. You, O God, are strong, and you, O Lord, are loving. Because your love is better than life, my lips will glorify you.

All: I will praise you as long as I live, and in your name I will lift up my hands. My soul will be satisfied as with the richest of foods; with singing lips my mouth will praise you.

 Hymn of praise

“Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation!
All ye who hear, now to his temple draw near,
join me in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, shelters thee under his wings, yea, so gently sustaineth!
Hast thou not seen how thy desires e'er have been granted in what he ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee!
Surely his goodness and mercy here daily attend thee;
ponder anew what the Almighty will do,
if with his love he befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before him!
Let the amen sound from his people again;
gladly fore'er we adore him.

text by Joachim Neander, 1680; tr. by Catherine Winkworth, 1863; music Stralsund Gesangbuch, 1665

* Prayer of adoration

Call to confession

based on 1 John 1 and Romans 13

This is the message we have heard from him and declare to you: God is light; in him there is no darkness at all. If we claim to have fellowship with him yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not live by the truth.

So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us clothe ourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ and not think about how to gratify the desires of the sinful nature.

Silent prayers of confession

Assurance of God's pardoning grace based on 1 Peter 2 and Galatians 2

Leader: Jesus Christ himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds we have been healed. For we were like sheep going astray, but now we have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of our souls.

All: We have been crucified with Christ and we no longer live, but Christ lives in us. The life that we live in the body, we live by faith in the Son of God, who loved us and gave himself for us.

* Hymn of assurance “There Is a Fountain Filled with Blood”

There is a fountain filled with blood, drawn from Immanuel’s veins;
and sinners, plunged beneath that flood, lose all their guilty stains:
lose all their guilty stains, lose all their guilty stains;
and sinners, plunged beneath that flood, lose all their guilty stains.

E’er since by faith I saw the stream your flowing wounds supply, redeeming love has been my theme, and shall be till I die:
and shall be till I die, and shall be till I die;
redeeming love has been my theme, and shall be till I die.

Dear dying Lamb, your precious blood shall never lose its pow’r, till all the ransomed church of God be saved to sin no more:
be saved to sin no more, be saved to sin no more;
till all the ransomed church of God be saved to sin no more.

text by William Cowper, 1771; music by Lowell Mason, 1830

Prayer of intercession for Metanoia Prison Ministries

Leader: O Lord, your Scriptures tell us that because of your great love we are not consumed, for your compassions never fail. They are new every morning, and great is your faithfulness. We pray that your love, your compassion, and your faithfulness would renew and advance the work of Metanoia Prison Ministries.

All: We ask that you would reveal yourself to men and women in prison who do not yet know you, and draw them into a life-giving and life-changing relationship with you. May they know your unfailing love and boundless grace and put their hope in you. For those who do know you, strengthen their faith and encourage their hearts by your Spirit.

Leader: We ask that you would protect these men and women from Covid-19, and that, when they feel afraid and helpless, they would find great comfort in you. Be with all who are grieving the loss of loved ones from the pandemic, and continue to give Metanoia wisdom as they seek to minister under such complicated circumstances.

All: We ask that you would raise up believers to become part of Metanoia's correspondence ministry, and allow new relationships between your people and prisoners to grow. Grant Metanoia access where they currently have none, and provide new opportunities for connection and friendship. We thank you, Lord, for Metanoia's work produced by faith, their labor prompted by love, and their endurance inspired by hope in your Son, Jesus Christ. We ask that you would continue to establish the work of their hands. Amen.

IN MEMORIAM

Michael Chamberlain Shuck

September 14, 1953 – October 9, 2020

Acts 20:22-38

²²“And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there. ²³I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me that prison and hardships are facing me. ²⁴However, I consider my life worth nothing to me, if only I may finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the gospel of God’s grace. ²⁵Now I know that none of you among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom will ever see me again. ²⁶Therefore, I declare to you today that I am innocent of the blood of all men. ²⁷For I have not hesitated to proclaim to you the whole will of God.

²⁸“Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood. ²⁹I know that after I leave, savage wolves will come in among you and will not spare the flock. ³⁰Even from your own number men will arise and distort the truth in order to draw away disciples after them. ³¹So be on your guard! Remember that for three years I never stopped warning each of you night and day with tears. ³²Now I commit you to God and to the word of his grace, which can build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

³³“I have not coveted anyone’s silver or gold or clothing. ³⁴You yourselves know that these hands of mine have supplied my own needs and the needs of my companions. ³⁵In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

³⁶When he had said this, he knelt down with all of them and prayed. ³⁷They all wept as they embraced him and kissed him. ³⁸What grieved them most was his statement that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.
