

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

January 31, 2021 | Fellowship Hall Service | 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m.

WELCOME TO LMPC! We're so glad you are with us today. Please use the tear-off card in the back of your bulletin to share important information with us. As we come together to worship the living God, we ask that you silence all communication devices and refrain from bringing beverages into worship so that we might, in joyful reverence, give our full attention to praising and honoring our God.

A FEW IMPORTANT THINGS TO NOTE:

- We do not have a nursery available in the morning services at this time.
- Coloring sheets and crayons are available for children. Please take crayons home with you.
- Tithes and offerings may be left in the plates at the exits.
- At the end of the service, please wait for the ushers to indicate when and where you are to exit.

Order of Worship

Welcome and announcements

Joe Novenson, pastor of senior adults

 Call to worship

taken from Psalm 97

Leader: The LORD reigns, let the earth be glad; let the distant shores rejoice. Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne. The heavens proclaim his righteousness, and all the peoples see his glory.

All: For you, O LORD, are the Most High over all the earth; you are exalted far above all gods. Let those who love the LORD hate evil, for he guards the lives of his faithful ones and delivers them from the hand of the wicked. Light is shed upon the righteous and joy on the upright in heart. Rejoice in the LORD, you who are righteous, and praise his holy name.

 Hymn of praise

"This Is My Father's World"

This is my Father's world, and to my list'ning ears, all nature sings, and round me rings the music of the spheres.
This is my Father's world: I rest me in the thought of rocks and trees, of skies and seas; his hand the wonders wrought.

This is my Father's world, the birds their carols raise,
the morning light, the lily white, declare their Maker's praise.
This is my Father's world: he shines in all that's fair;
in the rustling grass I hear him pass, he speaks to me everywhere.

This is my Father's world, O let me ne'er forget that though the wrong seems oft so strong, God is the Ruler yet.
This is my Father's world: the battle is not done;
Jesus who died shall be satisfied, and earth and heav'n be one.
text by Maltbie D. Babcock, 1901; music by Franklin L. Sheppard, 1915

* Prayer of adoration

Call to confession

based on Isaiah 55:6-7

Seek the LORD while he may be found; call on him while he is near. Let the wicked forsake his way and the evil man his thoughts. Let him turn to the LORD, and he will have mercy on him. Let him turn to our God, for he will freely pardon.

Prayer of confession

Leader: Gracious God, our sins are too heavy to bear, too real to hide, and too deep to undo. Our wounds are too severe to mend, too intimate to escape, and too painful to ignore. Though these terrible events happened long ago, they are real now, and we are in desperate need of your forgiveness for the ways our church failed to act and allowed others to suffer.

All: Father, we have sinned. Forgive us and heal us.

Leader: For hurting our witness to your Gospel of justice and love by ignoring the pain of others with our silence...

All: Father, we have sinned. Forgive us and heal us.

Leader: For our reluctance to acknowledge the breadth and depth of harm against those within our flock...

All: Father, we have sinned. Forgive us and heal us. We have no ability to save or heal ourselves. Restore what sin has laid waste; our only hope is in you. Amen.

Silent prayers of confession

Assurance of God's pardoning grace based on Colossians 1:19-22

For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in Christ, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation.

* Hymn of assurance

"Before the Throne of God Above"

Before the throne of God above I have a strong and perfect plea, a great High Priest whose name is Love, who ever lives and pleads for me.
My name is graven on his hands, my name is written on his heart;
I know that while in heav'n he stands no tongue can bid me thence depart;
no tongue can bid me thence depart.

When Satan tempts me to despair and tells me of the guilt within, upward I look and see him there who made an end to all my sin.
Because the sinless Savior died, my sinful soul is counted free;
for God, the Just, is satisfied to look on him and pardon me;
to look on him and pardon me.

Behold him there, the risen Lamb, my perfect, spotless righteousness, the great unchangeable I AM, the King of glory and of grace!
One with himself, I cannot die; my soul is purchased by his blood;
my life is hid with Christ on high, with Christ, my Savior and my God;
with Christ, my Savior and my God.
One with himself, I cannot die; my soul is purchased by his blood;
my life is hid with Christ on high, with Christ, my Savior and my God;
with Christ, my Savior and my God.

text by Charitie Lees Bancroft, 1863; music by Vikki Cook, 1997

Prayer of intercession and lament

Leader: Our Gracious Savior, the source of all forgiveness and healing, we come before you in lament over the devastation of abuse. This epidemic of evil is overwhelming and we don't know what to do, but our eyes are upon you. Hear the cries of the suffering, rebuke the sins of the perpetrators, forgive the apathy of the indifferent, and reveal to us our own complicity that we might repent. Shape us into a community that actively cares for and protects the vulnerable, and help us to cultivate an atmosphere of trust which allows the unspeakable to be brought to light.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: For the survivors of abuse that took place here, those who have come forward and those who remain silent, we pray that you will restore what sin has laid waste. May our church's confession and repentance be a balm to their suffering and hope in their darkness, and may they not hold the sins of this church against you. More than anything, may they discover the renewing grace of your Gospel, which is ultimately destined to heal every wound and wipe every tear.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: For the survivors of all forms of abuse, particularly those among us this day, we pray for them in their suffering. May they know, beyond a shadow of a doubt, that their suffering is not their fault, that their shame is a lie, and that your love is real. May they know, beyond a shadow of a doubt, that help is available and healing is possible. Give mercy to those who suffer and lead them to your cross and resurrection as their eternal comfort and steadfast hope.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: For the perpetrators of sexual abuse and all forms of abuse, we pray for justice. May they be exposed and rebuked by the severe mercy of your providence, and may their brokenness yield true repentance and faith in you who alone can make the foulest clean.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: For the church of Jesus Christ, we pray for your grace and guidance to lead us. May our communities be known as the safest place for survivors and the most defended place from abusers, and may we apologize and repent where we have failed in this. In a world of sexual chaos, may we bear witness to your good and perfect design for human sexuality. May we be known as a counterculture to the insatiable lust and exploitation that we see and experience in this life.

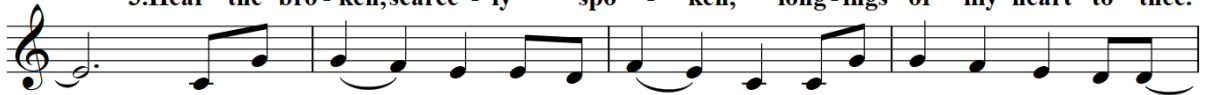

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Ephesians 5:8-14

⁸For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light ⁹(for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness, righteousness and truth) ¹⁰and find out what pleases the Lord. ¹¹Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them. ¹²For it is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret. ¹³But everything exposed by the light becomes visible, ¹⁴for it is light that makes everything visible. This is why it is said: "Wake up, O sleeper, rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you."

SERMON NOTES

“Abuse and the Hope of the Gospel: Living as Children of Light”

Ephesians 5:8-14

Related to the tragic reality of abuse, living as children of light means:

1. promoting goodness. (vv. 9-10)
2. doing what is righteous. (vv. 9-10)
3. seeking and speaking truth. (vv. 9-10)
4. exposing darkness. (vv. 11-13)
5. waking up. (v. 14)
6. shining Christ. (v. 14)

EMMA KATE MOONEY, SUPPORTED MISSIONARY IN CARDIFF

Please join us in praying for LMPC member, Emma Kate Mooney, as she prepares to return to Cardiff, Wales, to continue her service with Pioneers. Emma Kate was born and raised on Lookout Mountain. It was during her short-term missions trips to the Middle East in 2011 and 2013, and her time in Ankara, Turkey in 2014, that her eyes and heart were opened to asylum seekers and refugees fleeing neighboring countries. She has spent the last 18 months in Cardiff, Wales, serving on a Pioneers team where she teaches English to women of all different nationalities, serves on the international student and families teams with her local church, and spends time with international women who are survivors of trauma. She is a trained Trauma Healing Facilitator through American Bible Society which will be her main focus in ministry this year. It is her deep desire to share the love of Christ as she seeks to build relationships with women of all the nations who are coming to Cardiff.

If you are interested in learning more about Emma Kate's work with Pioneers, please contact Stephanie in the Missions Office at stephanie@lmpc.org.

RECOMMENDED RESOURCES ON ABUSE

GRACE recommendation #17: GRACE recommends that LMPC review the resources on the LMPC campus to be sure that resources exist for families impacted by all forms of abuse. This should include books and links to appropriate counseling in which a licensed clinician is able to provide evidence-based therapy and, within that setting, to also address the spiritual impact of all forms of abuse and misconduct.

LMPC response: The Safeguarding Team will commend to our library specific resources for families impacted by all forms of abuse. We will notify the congregation of these resources and also include these recommended resources and links on our website.

In an effort to begin following through on our Session-approved response, please consider these recommended resources for education, help, and spiritual guidance when considering the impact of all forms of abuse. These books are all in the LMPC library.

Books (Many of these are available for order at netgrace.org/books, through New Growth Press. Most are also readily available through Amazon.)
