

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

April 25, 2021 | Fellowship Hall Service | 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m.

WELCOME TO LMPC! We're so glad you are with us today. Please use the tear-off card in the back of your bulletin to share important information with us. As we come together to worship the living God, we ask that you silence all communication devices and refrain from bringing beverages into worship so that we might, in joyful reverence, give our full attention to praising and honoring our God.

A FEW IMPORTANT THINGS TO NOTE:

- We have a limited capacity nursery available this morning, as well as a Sunday school class for Pre-K/K children. Prior registration is required.
- Coloring sheets and crayons are available for children. Please take crayons home with you.
- Tithes and offerings may be left in the plates at the exits.

Order of Worship

Welcome and announcements

Aaron Tolson, pastor of youth ministry

 Call to worship

Psalm 111:1-3, 9-10

Leader: Praise the LORD. I will extol the LORD with all my heart in the council of the upright and in the assembly.

All: Great are the works of the LORD; they are pondered by all who delight in them. Glorious and majestic are his deeds, and his righteousness endures forever.

Leader: He provided redemption for his people; he ordained his covenant forever—holy and awesome is his name.

All: The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all who follow his precepts have good understanding. To him belongs eternal praise.

 Hymn of praise

“Holy, Holy, Holy!”

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee.
Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty!
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!

We have been made holy through the sacrifice of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. Day after day every priest stands and performs his religious duties; again and again he offers the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. But when this priest had offered for all time one sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God. Since that time he waits for his enemies to be made his footstool, because by one sacrifice he has made perfect forever those who are being made holy.

* Hymn of assurance "Before the Throne of God Above"

Before the throne of God above I have a strong and perfect plea, a great High Priest whose name is Love, who ever lives and pleads for me.
My name is graven on his hands, my name is written on his heart;
I know that while in heav'n he stands no tongue can bid me thence depart;
no tongue can bid me thence depart.

When Satan tempts me to despair and tells me of the guilt within,
upward I look and see him there who made an end to all my sin.
Because the sinless Savior died, my sinful soul is counted free;
for God, the Just, is satisfied to look on him and pardon me;
to look on him and pardon me.

Behold him there, the risen Lamb, my perfect, spotless righteousness, the great unchangeable I AM, the King of glory and of grace!
One with himself, I cannot die; my soul is purchased by his blood;
my life is hid with Christ on high, with Christ, my Savior and my God;
with Christ, my Savior and my God.
One with himself, I cannot die; my soul is purchased by his blood;
my life is hid with Christ on high, with Christ, my Savior and my God;
with Christ, my Savior and my God.

Pastoral prayer

* Hymn of response

“Be Thou My Vision”

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
naught be all else to me, save that thou art—
thou my best thought by day or by night,
waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.

Be thou my wisdom, and thou my true word;
I ever with thee and thou with me, Lord;
thou my great Father, I thy true son;
thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.

Riches I heed not, nor man’s empty praise,
thou mine inheritance, now and always:
thou and thou only, first in my heart,
High King of heaven, my treasure thou art.

High King of heaven, my victory won,
may I reach heaven’s joys, O bright heav’n’s Sun!
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

Ancient Irish poem, ca. 8th cent; Traditional Irish melody

* Benediction

* Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
praise him, all creatures here below;
praise him above, ye heavenly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

Genesis 25:19-34

¹⁹This is the account of Abraham's son Isaac. Abraham became the father of Isaac, ²⁰and Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddan Aram and sister of Laban the Aramean. ²¹Isaac prayed to the LORD on behalf of his wife, because she was barren. The LORD answered his prayer, and his wife Rebekah became pregnant.

²²The babies jostled each other within her, and she said, "Why is this happening to me?" So she went to inquire of the LORD. ²³The LORD said to her, "Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples from within you will be separated; one people will be stronger than the other, and the older will serve the younger." ²⁴When the time came for her to give birth, there were twin boys in her womb. ²⁵The first to come out was red, and his whole body was like a hairy garment; so they named him Esau. ²⁶After this, his brother came out, with his hand grasping Esau's heel; so he was named Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when Rebekah gave birth to them. ²⁷The boys grew up, and Esau became a skillful hunter, a man of the open country, while Jacob was a quiet man, staying among the tents. ²⁸Isaac, who had a taste for wild game, loved Esau, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

²⁹Once when Jacob was cooking some stew, Esau came in from the open country, famished.

³⁰He said to Jacob, "Quick, let me have some of that red stew! I'm famished!" (That is why he was also called Edom.) ³¹Jacob replied, "First sell me your birthright." ³²"Look, I am about to die," Esau said. "What good is the birthright to me?" ³³But Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore an oath to him, selling his birthright to Jacob. ³⁴Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and some lentil stew. He ate and drank, and then got up and left. So Esau despised his birthright.

SERMON NOTES

“God’s Sovereign Grace: Surprising and Stunning”

Genesis 25:19-34

God reveals his grace in:

1. The pregnancy (vv. 19-21)

- God’s gracious promises are received by faith in the midst of uncertain circumstances.

2. The birthright (vv. 22-28)

- God’s gracious choice is not based on our position, power, or pedigree.

3. The brothers (vv. 29-34)

- God’s gracious provision is often doubted by us leading to reckless and cunning self-reliance.

WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS

A CONGREGATIONAL MEETING TO ELECT NEW ELDERS AND DEACONS will take place in each worship service today. You can find more information about the nominees by picking up a brochure from the fellowship hall lobby or sanctuary narthex, or online at lmpc.org/officers.

These changes were approved by the Session based on the recommendations of our Covid Task Force. Please continue to follow CDC recommendations regarding remaining at home when exhibiting any symptoms of Covid-19 or following a known exposure to someone who is sick. As always, our task force will continue to monitor conditions in Hamilton County and re-assess our protocols whenever necessary.

WELCOME TO OUR NEW PASTOR: WIL NETTLETON

After much prayer and a 2+ year search interrupted for several months by the pandemic, the Session has issued a call to the Reverend Wil Nettleton to join our pastoral team. In addition to regular pastoral duties, Wil will be overseeing outreach at LMPC - including world, home, and mountain missions. Wil was approved for transfer by the Tennessee Valley Presbytery on April 17, 2021, and he and his wife, Mary, and their two children, Cooper and Story, hope to move here in June 2021. They will most likely need temporary housing when they first arrive. Please email frank@lmpc.org if you have something to offer.

NEW SERMON SERIES: THE GOSPEL IN THE LIFE OF JACOB

Have you ever asked yourself, “How can God use me?” Maybe you are bone-weary after months of virtual schooling and social distancing. Maybe you are heart-broken. Perhaps your faith is flickering so faintly that you wonder whether it has, in fact, burned out. Or maybe you compare yourself to those you believe to be more like Jesus—more loving, more compassionate, more steeped in Scripture—and think that God probably prefers those who are not struggling.

For the feeble and trembling, the story of Jacob is a warm fire to gather around. It makes rubbish the idea that God only seeks out wise, good, and accomplished people to be his followers and to do his work. In the second half of Genesis, we are offered an unflinching look at an imperfect man. If every family is to some extent or another dysfunctional, the dysfunction in Jacob’s family grew like unchecked cancer. And yet—and yet!—Jacob was chosen. His appalling failures did not cut him off from the never-ceasing flow of God’s grace. The Gospel was and is the best news for sinners.
