

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

July 3, 2022 | Sanctuary Service | 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

WELCOME TO LMPC! We're so glad you are with us today. Please use the welcome card from the pew rack in front of you to share important information with us; an online form is available by scanning the QR code on the back of the bulletin. As we come together to worship the living God, we ask that you silence all communication devices and refrain from bringing beverages into worship so that we might, in joyful reverence, give our full attention to praising and honoring our God.

CHILDCARE: Children of any age are welcome in our worship services. If you desire to use our nursery for your children ages 0-3, please see one of our ushers for directions. The ushers can also point you to the crayons and activity sheets relevant to today's sermon that are provided for children each week.

 Congregation standing as you are able*

Order of Worship

(words for meditation may be found in your hymnal #598 and #30)

Welcome and announcements Aaron Tolson, pastor of youth ministry

 Call to worship taken from Jeremiah 32 and Revelation 4:8

Leader: Sovereign LORD, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and outstretched arm. Nothing is too hard for you.

All: You show love to thousands—O great and powerful God, whose name is the LORD Almighty, great are your purposes and mighty are your deeds.

Leader: You performed miraculous signs and wonders in Egypt and have continued them to this day, both in Israel and among all mankind, and have gained the renown that is still yours.

All: Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come!

 Hymn of praise 710

"God of Our Fathers"

Silent prayers of confession

Assurance of God's pardoning grace

taken from Titus 3:4-7

When the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life.

Words of institution

Communion affirmation

Leader: O the unspeakable mysteries and treasures of mercy that are presented to us in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper! Here we have communion with God our Father who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ.

All: Here we have communion with our blessed Redeemer, as crucified and glorified, and offered to us, as our quickening, preserving, strengthening Head.

Leader: Here we have communion with the Holy Spirit, applying to our souls the benefits of redemption, drawing us to the Son, communicating light, life, and strength from him unto us, and increasing his graces in us.

All: Here we have communion with the body of Christ, his sanctified people. When we celebrate the Lord's Supper, we remember the finished work of Christ, receive nourishment, and anticipate the glory to come. Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

NEW SERMON SERIES – DEUTERONOMY: COVENANTAL CLARITY

Dr. Bruce Waltke said, “Deuteronomy is the most important book in the Old Testament.” Why? First, it is written by Moses to make the covenant relationship clear. Second, it informs the theology of Israel’s prophets and enables them to interpret Israel’s history, both its judgment and its hope for restoration. Third, Jesus quotes this book more than any other book of the Bible. Deuteronomy is quoted in the New Testament over 53 times - a number exceeded only by Isaiah and Psalms. And yet, the contemporary church largely neglects it.

As we ask for the renewal of our hearts before the face of God, our study of Deuteronomy will help us understand the nature of the covenant and what covenant renewal might look like. Clearly, Jesus loved this book. And when you love someone, you enjoy reading what they love and enjoy. So, let us hear, enjoy, and respond to our Covenant God.

SERIES OUTLINE

1. Deuteronomy 1-4: Remembering the Redemptive Story
2. Deuteronomy 4-26: Relating as People in the Covenant of Love
3. Deuteronomy 27-30: Recognizing the Reward of Obedience and the Punishment of Disobedience
4. Deuteronomy 31-34: Relying on the Succession of Leadership for Conquest

Deuteronomy 1:1-8

¹These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazereth, and Dizahab. ²It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-barnea. ³In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses spoke to the people of Israel according to all that the LORD had given him in commandment to them, ⁴after he had defeated Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth and in Edrei. ⁵Beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses undertook to explain this law, saying,

⁶"The LORD our God said to us in Horeb, 'You have stayed long enough at this mountain. ⁷Turn and take your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites and to all their neighbors in the Arabah, in the hill country and in the lowland and in the Negeb and by the seacoast, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates. ⁸See, I have set the land before you. Go in and take possession of the land that the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their offspring after them.'"
